"Abul-Qasim Ibn Abu Muhammad," "Sunnah101" and "Abu Baheera,"

Defendant.

PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

This matter comes before the court upon the motion of the United States for a Protective Order Regarding Classified Information to prevent the unauthorized disclosure or dissemination of classified national security information and documents which will be reviewed or made available to the defendant's counsel by the government during the prosecution of this case. Pursuant to the authority granted under Section 3 of the Classified Information Procedures Act, 18 U.S.C. App. 3 (2000) ("CIPA"), the Security Procedures Established Pursuant to CIPA by the Chief Justice of the United States for the Protection of Classified Information (reprinted following CIPA section (9)), Rules 16(d) and 57 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the general supervisory authority of the court, and in order to protect the national security, the following Protective Order is entered:

1. The Court finds that this case will involve information that has been classified in the interest of the national security. The storage, handling and control of this information will require special security precautions mandated by statute, executive order, and regulation, and access to which requires the appropriate security clearances. The purpose of this Order is to establish procedures that must be followed by counsel and the parties in this case. These procedures will apply to all pretrial, trial, post-trial and appellate matters concerning classified information and may be modified from time to time by further order of the Court acting under its inherent supervisory authority to ensure a fair and expeditious trial.

2. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to this Order:

a. "Classified information" shall mean:

i. any document or information which has been classified by any executive agency in the interests of national security or pursuant to Executive Order 12356 as "confidential," "secret," "top secret," or "sensitive compartmented information," ii. any document or information now or formerly in the possession of a private party which (A) has been derived from information from the United States government that was classified, and (B) has been subsequently classified by the United States pursuant to Executive Order 12356 as "confidential," "secret," "top secret," or "sensitive compartmented information," iii. verbal classified information known to the defendant or defense counsel, or

iv. any information, including "foreign government information," as that term is defined in Executive Order 12958, as amended by Executive Order 13292, that could reasonably be believed to contain classified information.

b. "Document" shall mean any material containing information. The term "document" shall include, without limitation, written or printed matter of any kind, including originals, conforming copies, and non-conforming copies (e.g., a copy of an original with an added notation). The term "document" shall also include, without limitation, letters, reports, summaries, memoranda, notes, communications, telexes, cables, telecopies, telegrams, facsimiles, e-mails, microfilms, reports, photographs, charts, graphs, maps, invoices, accountings, worksheets, bulletins, transcripts and messages, as well as alterations, amendments, modifications, and changes of any kind to the foregoing and all recordings of information on magnetic, electronic, or optical media (including but not limited to those on CD-ROM), typewriter ribbons, films and all manner of electronic data processing storage.

c. "Access to classified information" means having access to, reviewing, reading, learning, or otherwise coming to know in any manner classified information.

d. "Secure area" means a sensitive compartmented information facility accredited by a Court Security Officer for the storage, handling and control of classified information. All classified documents and information therein shall remain classified unless the documents bear a clear indication that they have been declassified by the agency or department that originated the document or information contained therein (hereinafter, "originating agency").

3. In accordance with the provisions of CIPA and the Security Procedures promulgated by the Chief Justice of the United States pursuant to that Act, this court designates Michael P. Macisso as the Court Security Officer and W. Scooter Slade, Jennifer H. Campbell, Miguel Ferrer, Christine E. Gunning, Daniel O. Hartenstine, Joan B. Kennedy, and Maura Peterson as alternate Court Security Officers for this case for the purpose of providing security arrangements necessary to protect any classified information or documents that will be made available to the defense in connection with this case. Defense counsel shall seek guidance from the Court Security Officer with regard to appropriate storage, transmittal, and use of classified information.

4. The court has been advised that AUSAs James Loonam and Ali Kazemi have the requisite security clearances allowing them to have access to classified documents and information that relate to this case. Any references to government attorneys who may in the future participate in the litigation of any part of this matter (or supervise such litigation) will have security clearances appropriate for the level of classification of any documents reviewed.

5. The defendant's counsel Frederick H. Cohn shall be given access to classified national security documents and information as required by the government's discovery obligations and in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order, and any other orders pursuant to CIPA, and upon receipt of appropriate security clearances. Any additional person whose assistance the defense reasonably requires may only have access to classified information in this case after first obtaining from this Court, with prior notice to the government, an approval for access to the required level of classification on a need-to-know basis, and after satisfying the other requirements described in this Order for access to classified information. The substitution, departure, or removal from this case of defense counsel or any other cleared person associated with the defense as an employee or witness or otherwise, shall not release that person from the provisions of this Order or the Memorandum of Understanding executed in connection with this Order.

6. The Court Security Officer shall arrange for and maintain an appropriately approved secure area for the use of defense counsel. The Court Security Officer shall establish procedures to assure that the secure area is accessible to defense counsel during business hours and at other times upon reasonable request as approved by the Court Security Officer. The secure area shall contain a separate working area for defense counsel and will be outfitted with any secure office equipment requested by the defense that is reasonable and necessary to the preparation of the defense. The Court Security Officer, in consultation with defense counsel, shall establish procedures to assure that the secure area may be maintained and operated in the most efficient manner consistent with the protection of classified information. No classified documents may be removed from the secured area unless so authorized by the Court Security Officer. The Court Security Officer shall not reveal to the government the content of any conversations he or she may hear among the defense, nor reveal the nature of the documents being reviewed or the work being generated. The presence of the Court Security Officer shall not operate to render inapplicable the attorney-client-privilege.

7. Filing of Papers by Defendant. Any pleading or other document filed by the defendant which defense counsel knows or has reason to believe is classified, or is unsure of the proper classification of the document or pleading, shall be filed under seal with the Court Security Officer or his designee and shall be marked "Filed in Camera and Under Seal with the Court Security Officer or Designee." The time of physical submission to the Court Security Officer or his designee shall be considered the date and time of filing. The Court Security Officer shall promptly examine the pleading or document and, in consultation with representatives of the appropriate agencies, determine whether the pleading or document contains classified information. If the Court Security Officer determines that the pleading or document contains classified information, he or she shall ensure that the portion of the document containing classified information, and only that portion, is marked with the appropriate classification marking and remains under seal. All portions of all paper filed by the defendant that do not contain classified information shall be immediately unsealed by the Court Security Officer and placed in the public record, unless counsel requests that the paper be filed under seal for other reasons. Except in cases where the pleading or document is filed ex parte, the Court Security Officer shall immediately deliver under seal to the Court and counsel for the United States any pleading or document to be filed by the defendant that contains classified information. The Court shall then direct the clerk to enter on the docket sheet the title of the pleading or document, the date it was filed, and the fact that it has been filed under seal with the Court Security Officer.

8. Filing of Papers by the United States. Those portions of pleadings or documents filed by the United States that contain classified information shall be filed under seal with the court through the Court Security Officer. Such pleadings and documents shall be marked, "Filed In Camera and under Seal with the Court Security Officer." The date and time of physical submission to the Court Security Officer shall be considered the date and time of filing. Unless the paper is filed ex parte, the Court Security Officer shall immediately deliver the pleading or document under seal to counsel for the defendant.

9. The Court Security Officer shall maintain a separate sealed record for those materials which are classified. The Court Security Officer shall be responsible for maintaining the secured records for purposes of later proceedings or appeal.

10. Protection of Classified Information. The Court finds that in order to protect the classified information involved in this case, no individual other than counsel for the United States, appropriately cleared Department of Justice employees, personnel of the originating agency, and the defendant's counsel named above shall be allowed to obtain access to classified documents and information unless and until that person has been granted a security clearance by the Department of Justice through the Court Security Officer, obtained permission of the Court, and signed the Memorandum of Understanding in the form attached hereto, thereby agreeing to comply with the terms of this Order. The signed Memorandum of Understanding shall be filed with the Court. The substitution, departure, or removal for any reason from this case of counsel for the defense or anyone later cleared and associated with the defense as an employee or witness or otherwise shall not release that individual from the provisions of this Order or the Memorandum of Understanding executed in connection with this Order. Before any person other than counsel for the United States, appropriately cleared Department of Justice employees and personnel of the originating agency, is permitted by the Court to inspect and review classified national security information, he or she must also sign the attached Memorandum of Understanding.

11. Access to Classified Information. The defendant's counsel and cleared employees of counsel for the defendant or cleared witnesses accompanied by counsel for the defendant (hereinafter, "the defense") shall have access to classified information only as follows:

a. All classified information produced by the government to the defense in discovery or otherwise, and all classified information possessed, created or maintained by the defense, shall be stored, maintained and used only in the secure area established by the Court Security Officer. No classified information shall be maintained by the defense in any other place other than the secure area established by the Court Security Officer.

b. The defendant's counsel shall have free access to the classified information made available to them in the secure area established by the Court Security Officer and shall be allowed to take notes and prepare documents with respect to those materials.

c. No person, including counsel for the defendant, shall copy or reproduce any classified information in any manner or form, except with the approval of the Court Security Officer or in accordance with the procedures established by the Court Security Officer for the operation of the secure area.

d. All documents prepared by the defense (including, without limitation, pleadings or other documents intended for filing with the Court) that do or may contain classified information must be prepared in a secure area on word processing equipment approved by the Court Security Officer. All such documents and any associated materials (such as notes, drafts, copies, typewriter ribbons, magnetic recordings, exhibits) containing classified information shall be maintained in the secure area unless and until the Court Security Officer determines that those documents or associated materials are unclassified in their entirety. None of these materials shall be disclosed to counsel for the United States.

e. The defense shall discuss classified information only with other cleared persons and only in the secure area or in an area authorized by the Court Security Officer.

f. The defense shall not disclose, without prior approval of the Court, the contents of any classified documents or information to any person not named in this Order except the Court, Court personnel and the attorneys for the United States identified by the Court Security Officer as having the appropriate clearances and the need to know. Counsel for the United States shall be given an opportunity to be heard in response to any defense request for disclosure to a person not named in this Order. Any person approved by the Court for disclosure under this paragraph shall be required to obtain the appropriate security clearance, to sign and submit to the Court the Memorandum of Understanding appended to the Order, and to comply with all the terms and conditions of the Order. If preparation of the defense requires that classified information be disclosed to persons not named in this Order, the Department of Justice shall promptly seek to obtain security clearances for them at the request of defense counsel.

g. The defense shall not discuss classified information over any standard commercial telephone instrument or office intercommunication systems, including but not limited to the internet, or in the presence of any person who has not received an appropriate approval for access to classified information.

h. Any documents written by the defense that do or may contain classified information shall be transcribed, recorded, typed, duplicated, copied or otherwise prepared only by persons who have received an appropriate approval for access to classified information.

12. Classified Information Procedures Act. No motion has been made by the defense for the disclosure of classified information as of this date. Procedures for the public disclosure of classified information by the defense shall be those established in sections 5 and 6 of CIPA. The court may issue additional Protective Orders as needed.

13. Any unauthorized disclosure of classified information may constitute violations of United States criminal laws. In addition, any violation of the terms of this Order shall be brought immediately to the attention of this Court and may result in a charge of contempt of court and possible referral for criminal prosecution. Any breach of this Order may also result in termination of an individual's access to classified information. Persons subject to this Order are advised that direct or indirect unauthorized disclosure, retention, or negligent handling of classified documents or information could cause serious damage, and in some cases, exceptionally grave damage to the national security of the United States or may be used to the advantage of a foreign nation against the interests of the United States. This Protective Order is to ensure that those authorized to receive classified information in connection with this case will never divulge that information to anyone not authorized to receive it, without prior written authorization from the originating agency and in conformity with this Order.

14. All classified documents and information to which the defense has access in this case are now and will remain the property of the United States. Upon demand of the Court Security Officer, these persons shall return to the Court Security Officer all classified information in their possession obtained through discovery from the government in this case, or for which they are responsible because of access to classified information. The notes, summaries and other documents prepared by the defense that do or may contain classified information shall remain at all times in the custody of the Court Security Officer for the duration of the case. At the conclusion of this case, all such notes, summaries and other documents are to be destroyed by the Court Security Officer in the presence of defense counsel.

15. A copy of this Order shall be issued forthwith to the defense counsel who shall be responsible for advising the defendant, any co-counsel, employees of counsel for the defendant, and defense witnesses who need to know of the contents of this Order. Counsel for the defendant and any other individuals who will be provided access to the classified information, shall execute the Memorandum of Understanding described in paragraph 11 of this Order, and counsel for the defendant shall file executed originals of such documents with the Court and the Court Security Officer and serve an executed original upon the United States. The execution and filing of the Memorandum of Understanding is a condition precedent for counsel for the defendant or any other person assisting the defense to have access to classified information.
